(Shahara walks in and goes straight to computer.)

Alvi: Oh, how was your day?

Shahara: (takes long time to answer) Good.

Alvi: Anything happen in school?

Shahara: (yelling) Things happen every day. It's not that important!

Alvi: Why do you have to talk like that? I just asked you a simple question.

Shahara: (yelling) Just stop! I have a lot of homework!

Alvi: Yeah you have a lot of h.w. I see what hw YOU do. I see your grades. They're terrible.

Shahara: (annoyed face) I'm trying my best.

Alvi: You're on the computer all day on the Facebook and internet. You're not doing any h.w.

Shahara: How do you know? You don't watch me! You're never home!

Alvi: If you didn't stay on the computer and fool around with your friends everyday then your grades would be better.

Shahara: You say the same thing over and over again. It's obvious. You don't know anything.

Alvi: I know much more than you.

Shahara: You didn't even go to college! You came here from Bangladesh.

Alvi: At this rate, you're not even going to community college. That's it. Get off the computer. NOW.

Shahara: (gets up and hits hands on table, slams chair in really hard)

4:20-4:30: Alvi's segment

4:30-4:40: well not really a segment but Muaz's "stories" and mixed reactions from members will take up time until then.

We can end a little bit earlier around 4:45 to take any questions about anything, maybe talk about hoodies and Eid party and then leave to pray maghrib.

“And your Lord has decreed that you not worship except Him, and to parents, good treatment. Whether one or both of them reach old age [while] with you, say not to them [so much as], "uff," and do not repel them but speak to them a noble word.” - Al-'Isra' [17:23]

“And lower to them the wing of humility out of mercy and say, "My Lord, have mercy upon them as they brought me up [when I was] small." - Al-'Isra' [17:24]
